

ROBERTO GUMIRATO, CEO

Roberto Gumirato is CEO of CAME S.p.A. Born in Treviso in 1961, for fifteen years, from 2003 to 2018, he was one of the leading figures in the Ascopiave Group, the North East-based utility that distributes and sells natural gas, first as CFO and then as General Manager. He personally dealt with the management of the company's stock exchange listing process and quintupled the value of its stock thanks to work to rationalise the structure and to a corporate acquisition program.

At the start of his career, in the late '80s and early '90s, he worked for Electrolux Zanussi S.p.A., holding various positions including that of Director of International Finance, dealing with the development of plants in Russia and China.

A manager who has always specialized in Finance and Control, Gumirato graduated in Economics and Business from Ca' Foscari University in Venice. In the course of his training and professional development, Gumirato has deepened his knowledge of information systems in Chicago, developed specialized skills relating to energy distribution networks in Paris with McKinsey & Company and participated in training on risk management processes in Frankfurt with Citibank.

Gumirato has also gained important experience in the world of football: he is currently a member of the Board of Directors of Padova football club and between 2000 and 2002 he held management positions in the Zamparini Group.